BLENDING EXCLUSIVENESS WITH INEXPENSIVENESS

YOU walk along West Fourth Street observing the window displays. Suddenly you halt! A certain fashion has caught your eye. You are fascinated. What a lovely Frock! And this Suit—and that Coat—how perfectly charming! But you fear the prices—they must be awfully high-priced! You step into the shop to inquire. You are amazed!—and right here and now, you decide to buy all three—that's Milwards.

Who Is Your Competitor?

What competition do you fear most? The competition from a store which advertises, or the other kind?

Directory advertising—regular advertising—is a vital part of the sales effort of aggressive, optimistic firms.

For business enterprises in which such an advertising policy prevails, the outlook is always rosy.
